

24th
ANNUAL

Fair Housing

Laws & Litigation Conference

12 CLE Credits

February 15, 2017

Reconciling Fair Housing Civil Rights While Addressing Terrorism and Hate Crimes

Featured Speakers

R. Tamar Hagler, Esq.
Deputy Chief
Housing and Civil Enforcement
Section, Civil Rights Division
U.S. Department of Justice

Alexandra Seldin, Esq.
Senior Staff Counsel
California Department of Fair Employment and Housing

Oscar Garcia, Esq.
Deputy District Attorney
Hate Crimes Unit

Lei-Chala I. Wilson, Esq.
Law Offices of
Lei-Chala I. Wilson

Joanna Mendelson
Senior Investigative Researcher
& Director of Special Projects with the Anti-Defamation League

Other Speakers

Todd Hemmen
Supervisory Special Agent
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Christopher Sedmak
Special Agent

Featured Discussions

Hate Crimes - Definition Of

How is a hate crime defined under federal and state fair housing law?

The Intersection of Hate Crimes and Terrorism

How does the right to live where one chooses intersect with the duty to protect residents and the community against terrorists acts?

Protections and Remedies

What protections and remedies exist under federal and state anti-hate crime laws?

Enforcement Entities

Which law enforcement entities serve to protect the community against hate crimes and terrorism?
What is the role of each?

Community Resources

What resources already exist and what more is needed to combat hate crimes and terrorism?

Solutions

How can everyone become involved in solutions?

For more details, developing agenda and registration, visit www.fhcsd.com.